"STRIKE THE RUSSIAN DEVIL."

"Must Not Speak to Me in Riddles."

IRON BAR IN SELF DEFENCE?

Some very amusing passages came up in a case which Mr. R. E. Lindsell heard at the Central Magistracy this morning. Yeung Wah-shing, a fooki, was charged with having assaulted Mr. Mischal Piankoff, head baker of Lane, Crawford's bakery at Wanchai. Mr. Horace Lo appeared for the defence and pleaded not guilty.

Mr. Piankoff explained that the bakery had two floors—a ground floor and first floor. The ground floor was the cake department and the first floor was the sweet department. Witness's floor was the latter. The trouble started a little after 12.30 on Friday. There was a mixing machine downstairs and one upstairs. His was for mixing sponge as well as sugar icing. The defendant came upstairs to use the machine, which he had no right to do. Witness told him that he could not use the machine because the motor was hot. He spoke in English and Chinese.

"All Wrong." Defendant then went downstairs, but returned, and whilst witness was doing his work, started to use the machine, which was in second gear. Witness told the defendant that it was all wrong to use the machine whilst it was in second gear and pushed him off. Witness then switched the machine from second gear to first gear.

In reply to Mr. Lo, witness agreed that people from downstairs often came up to use that particular machine for mixing, but he did not want to object so as not to cause any trouble.

Continuing, witness said that the defendant then went away again, but returned with an iron bar. Then, whilst he was boiling sugar at the gas-stove, the defendant said: "Strike Russian devil." He took no heed of that, but on turning round saw that the defendant was going to strike him.

Carried Him to Station. Witness put up his hand to ward off the blow, and in doing so, received a deep cut on the right hand with a corner of the bar. Defendant was about to strike him again, when witness caught hold of him and carried him to the Police Station (No. 2). Just before going defendant bit him on the right forearm. "I carried him," he said, "because I did not want to let him loose. My skin is tender."

Witness was sent to hospital, where two stitches were inserted. He was not detained. In his cross-examination, Mr. Lo suggested that the time between when the defendant left after his first visit, and the time when he returned, was sufficient time for the machine to cool down.

Mr. Piankoff: How do you know? Mr. Lo: I don't know. After his Worship had explained the question witness replied that it was safe to use the machine after he had put it into first gear. The mixture that defendant wanted to use was hard.

Mr. Lo's case was that the second time defendant went back, the complainant drove him off without giving any explanation as to why he did so.

Not His National Language. Mr. Piankoff: You must not speak to me in riddles. English is not my national language! Mr. Lo suggested that the complainant struck the defendant in the chest first.

Mr. Piankoff: I did not strike him, my Lord. Mr. Lo remarked that that was his instructions. Mr. Piankoff: I hit him. He told you that.

Mr. Lo then suggested to his Worship that the defendant did not have the bar with intention to strike the complainant. He said there was no evidence to show that he could go on with his work without being

SANITARY BOARD.

GOVERNMENT AND DIRECTOR'S RECOMMENDATION.

LIME IN WATER.

At the meeting of the Sanitary Board to-morrow, letters to and from the Government relative to the recommendations of the Director of Medical and Sanitary Services as a result of his membership of the Sanitary Board will be submitted to the Sanitary Board to-morrow.

A letter from the Government will be read relative to the approval of the amendment of the Offensive Trade By-laws.

Mr. T. N. Chau, pursuant to notice, will ask:

"In view of the fear expressed by certain members of the Chinese community that the frequent drinking of chlorinated water might be injurious to health, will the Head of the Sanitary Department inform the Board:

1. Whether in the opinion of the Medical Officers of Health such is the case or not?
- ii. Whether the quantity of chlorinated lime used on each and every occasion is prescribed and supervised by expert officers?
- iii. Whether there is any other chemical substance of less pronounced odour and taste which could be effectively substituted for chlorinated lime?
- iv. If the answer to question (iii) is in the negative, can anything be done to remove or lessen the very disagreeable odour and taste?"

molested any more. He was not the aggressor.

Mr. Lindsell: With an iron bar, and not aggressive? Mr. Lo: I suggest that he brought the iron bar up in self-defence.

"What Nonsense!" Mr. Lindsell: Mr. Lo, Mr. Lo, what nonsense!

Mr. Lo: Your Worship, I suggest it is not nonsense.

Turning to the complainant Mr. Lo suggested that he (Mr. Piankoff) was stronger than the defendant.

Mr. Piankoff: Do you know? Mr. Lo: I think so.

Mr. Piankoff: You think so? Mr. Lo: Yes, why?

Mr. Piankoff: Then why do you ask?

In reply to further questions, Mr. Piankoff suggested that had he not grappled with the defendant, he might have been injured badly or killed.

A Demonstration. Mr. Piankoff demonstrated in the well of the Court exactly what happened in the bakery room.

Next witness called was Wong Hung, who said that he was assistant to No. 1 in the bakery. He stated that he did not explain to the defendant that he was not to use the machine. The second time, he did not hear what was said, and did not even see the iron bar. The third time he did not see anything but he heard sounds of a quarrel. He saw the complainant carry the defendant away.

Mr. Lo said that his client would give evidence on his own behalf.

His Worship then remanded the case till to-morrow. The appearance of the defendant in the dock caused his Worship to remark: "I am very much surprised at the Police granting bail in this case. No offence had been committed."

PREMIER REPLIES TO GENERAL SMUTS.

MacDonald Defends His Policy in Palestine.

RIGHTS OF THE JEWS.

Rugby, Yesterday. The Prime Minister, in reply to General Smuts, who criticised the British Government's recent statement of policy in Palestine, says he feels sure that General Smuts' views are based on an incomplete telegraphic summary of contents of the statement, and that when he has read the full text he will admit that it cannot fairly be described as a retreat from the Balfour Declaration. That declaration, he adds, "Explicitly provided that nothing should be done which might prejudice the civil and religious rights of existing non-Jewish communities in Palestine. Since the acceptance of the Palestine Mandate the trend of events and, in particular, some of the methods adopted in the establishment of Jewish communities to a degree which, in the light of the Hope Simpson report, has given us grave concern and convinced us of the necessity for special measures to ensure that the double obligation contained in the Mandate is fulfilled.

"The Government have affirmed the view endorsed by the Permanent Mandates Commission and the Council of the League that the obligations laid down by the Mandate in regard to the two sections of the population are of equal weight. You will also recall that the Commission expressed the view that had the Mandatory Government concerned itself more closely with the social and economic adaptation of the Arab population to the new conditions, due to Jewish immigration, it would have served the interests of both sections of the population.

Methodical Scheme. "Our present policy is in conformity with that suggestion, and envisages a scheme of more methodical agricultural development which, as is shown in the Hope Simpson report, is the only method whereby additional Jewish agricultural settlement will be possible consistently with the conditions laid down in Article Six of the Mandate, which enjoins that the rights and position of other sections of the population are not to be prejudiced.

"The Government have made it clear in the statement of policy that measures for development are envisaged in benefits of which Jews and Arabs can both share. Neither as regards land policy nor as regards immigration do the Government aim at crystallising a Jewish national home at its present stage of development.

"The statement of policy contains no stoppage or even suspension of colonisation on a large amount of land yet undeveloped and already in Jewish ownership. It has been the consistent policy of successive Governments that Jewish immigration should not exceed the economic capacity of the country to absorb new en-

ALLEGED GUN RUNNING TO CHINA.

An Erroneous Transcription Of Cable.

It has been pointed out to us that an unfortunate and regrettable error appeared in our issue of Friday in the publication of Reuter's cable regarding the alleged gun-running plot in which it was made to appear that the Bank of China was involved. The actual words cabled were: "Instructions for Bank China" and "Informed Bank China" this being twice transcribed by us as "Bank of China."

This, we are now informed, should have read "Bank in China," which may refer to any Bank and not to the Bank of China, which naturally repudiates any connection with the gun-running plot.

In the circumstances we can but regret the wrongful impression that may have been conveyed by the cable in the form published in Friday's China Mail and sincerely apologise to the Bank of China for any aspersion unwittingly cast on them.

NEW PRESIDENT OF BRAZIL.

Invitation to Defeated Liberal Candidate.

JUNTA UNSUITABLE.

New York, Yesterday. The Government Junta, by wireless, has invited Getulio Vargas to assume the Presidency, as they have no pretensions as to the future government.

Vargas was defeated as a Liberal candidate in the Presidency elections in the Spring. The defeat was resented in several States and the revolution has ever since been preparing. Vargas practically demanded the Presidency, declaring that the Junta joined the revolution at the last minute and is unsuitable to carry on the Government.—Reuter's American Service.

CHEUNGCHAU NOTES

SAMPAN WOMEN BAPTISED IN THE SEA.

UNUSUAL SCENE.

[From Our Own Correspondent.] Cheung Chau, Yesterday. Yesterday we welcomed a new resident to house 4A, formerly the property of Mr. L. M. Whyte. An unusual scene was witnessed yesterday forenoon, on the long beach, when four men and twelve women were baptised in the sea by the Rev. A. K. Reiton. All the candidates were from the boat population.

Two lady members of the B.C.M.S. at Nanning have left on furlough. Two others, the Rev. W. Stott and Miss Field have left for Haiphong. Others are waiting more favourable reports from Nanning before returning there.

At least two houses will be occupied in the near future for about a fortnight. A start has been made on the concrete verandah at No. 20.

trans. The new statement reaffirms this principle in language which recognises that, owing to various causes, it has been imperfectly applied in the past.

A Disappointment. "The Government recognised that the policy outlined is bound to be a disappointment to the hopes of the more zealous elements of both communities, but they are confident that on a fuller appreciation of the facts and a consideration of the policy based upon them an increasing body of unbiased opinion will be convinced that in its main lines this policy is not only in accordance with the mandatory obligations, but designed in the best interests of the two sections of the Palestine population, whose welfare is a matter of sincere concern to His Majesty's Government.—British Wireless Service.

The Australian Premier, Mr. James Scullin in a statement in regard to the meeting of the Australian Commonwealth Parliament on Thursday to pass the legislation necessary to balance the Budget, emphasises that the Commonwealth Government's undertaking to meet Australia's obligations will be honoured, and he is confident that all States' Governments will do the same.

"98 Per Cent. British."

Rugby, Yesterday. The Prime Minister of Australia, Mr. J. Scullin, in a speech at Oxford last night, again repudiated the suggestion Australia was considering of refusal to acknowledge her debts, and said that Australia was just as unlikely to repudiate her debts as Britain. In his speech he emphasised the overwhelming British character of the Australian population, of whom 98 per cent. were British. He added, "We are a part of the British Commonwealth of Nations, and we intend to remain so. Our relations with the Home country are as cordial as they have ever been, and it is not a question of strengthening those relations, but of re-opening them.—British Wireless Service.

ARSON CHARGE.

DISCHARGED DEFENDANT IN THE BOX.

ELEMENTS OF MYSTERY.

Before Mr. R. E. Lindsell at the Central Magistracy this morning, the case was continued in which Li Sui-ping and three other Chinese are charged with conspiracy and attempted arson at the Tin Sang Tong medicine shop, 77, Wing Lok Street, on October 19.

At Saturday's hearing Chan Yau-fong, a fifth defendant was discharged and then put in the witness box.

Mr. H. Somerset Fitzroy, Public Prosecutor, is conducting the case for the Crown, whilst it was intimated to-day that Mr. Remedios had been instructed by first and second defendants. Mr. Leo d'Almada, sen., appeared on his behalf.

Importance of a Meal.

Chan Yau-fong, in evidence, said that on the night of the 18th he was at 77, Wing Lok Street, and prepared the evening meal. Witness at first could not recall what the nature of the food was, but afterwards recalled that it consisted of pork stewed with vegetables, and fish. There was to have been another course of fish, but first defendant said it was too late to wait for it to be prepared. The master therefore sent out Li Wai, fourth defendant, to buy roast pork.

Witness said that first, second and fourth defendants were at the meal, together with Li Cheung (second son of first defendant, who is not in custody), and a man named Li Chow-chun, who had lived in the place about one month, and was presumably a kinsman. Third defendant was at the Po Tai Shipping Company, in Connaught Road West. The meal finished later than usual.

Witness finished washing up the dishes after the meal at about 6 p.m., and his master then sent him back to the Po Tai Company, with instructions to send the other fooki back for his meal. When witness got there fourth defendant had already arrived. Witness did not notice whether the door on the ground floor of 77, Wing Lok Street was closed or not when he left. He did not see his master again between that time and midnight.

Clothing Identified.

Mr. Fitzroy asked witness if he could identify any clothing from a heap found by the Police at Po Tai. Witness identified a pair of trousers as belonging to first defendant, and also a blanket and quilt. There was also some clothing belonging to Li Cheung which he was able to identify. The blanket, he knew, had been kept at Tin Sang Tong. He had seen a similar quilt at Po Tai before, but was not sure if it was the same as the one in Court. He had not at any time seen any men at Po Tai who were not connected with Tin Sang Tong.

Counsel in a Quandary.

Upon Mr. d'Almada, being asked if he wished to cross-examine, he stated that he had only received instruction the same morning and knew nothing about the case. He explained that cross-examination at this stage might not be of benefit to his clients. He therefore asked His Worship for an adjournment.

Mr. Fitzroy intimated that the defence had the opportunity to cross-examine if they so wished, but he would not raise any objections to the examination being reserved. His Worship said he would allow cross-examination to be deferred.

Case Adjourned.

Answering His Worship, witness said the meal was just an ordinary one. It was not often they had roast pork, but there was nothing special about the occasion. After further questions, His Worship adjourned the hearing until Monday next at 11.30 a.m. It is understood that there are about sixteen witnesses for the prosecution, and the hearing is likely to be a protracted one.

SOVIET FEARS OF REVOLT.

Secret Document Disclosures.

INTERNAL CRISIS.

Discontent, not only in the agricultural, but also in the industrial areas of Russia, which has been smouldering for a long time, added to unrest among the officers of the Red Army, which may develop into an internal crisis, is disclosed in a "Confidential Summary" which the Soviet Government has issued to all its representatives in foreign countries, says a special correspondent of the Morning Post on September 10.

This Summary is compiled from the reports of the 1,000 O.G.P.U. special agents in all the industrial and agricultural areas. It is intended to be seen only by members of the Politbureau and the Soviet Government and its representatives, and it is considered of so confidential a nature that each copy bears the instruction "To be burnt after perusal."

The Summary discloses that opposition to the Stalin regime is particularly strong in the Red Army, and it is even asserted that the majority of the Red officers have openly or secretly associated themselves with the "Right" opposition, in spite of the fact that the XVth Congress solemnly and unanimously censured the leaders of the "Right."

Evidence of Sabotage. A great deal of evidence of sabotage is mentioned in the Summary—that wilful destruction of machinery increasing during the last two months, especially in the Don Basin Coalfields, in the Urals, and in Western Siberia. The Summary says quite frankly that it is not the engineers and technicians who are responsible for these acts of sabotage but the rank and file of the workers.

The reason for this is to be found in the increasing discontent among the workers owing to the scarcity of food, irregularity of supplies of all kinds, diminished wages, and revolt against the industrial discipline of the Soviet. Workers migrate from one district to another in the vain hope of better conditions, and this "liquidation of labour" is seriously handicapping the fulfilment of "the five-year plan in four years."

But the main difficulty which the Soviet Government is experiencing is from the agriculturalists. The Summary expresses very pessimistic prospects on food supplies during the coming winter. The "grain collection campaign" is not progressing too favourably, but this, to some extent, is due to the exaggerated estimates which the local authorities gave of the areas sown.

Soviet Agents Murdered. The peasants owing to the persecutions to which they were subjected, have shown hardly enough to satisfy their own demands. The collective farms, which were expected to supply over one half of the grain and other agricultural produce to supply the industrial population, are refusing to surrender their crops under different pretexts.

So violent is the peasant feeling becoming that sabotage of steam and horse threshers is taking place.

The detachments of Communists who are sent to the villages to exact the grain from the peasants meet with determined resistance, and the Summary states that the number of Soviet officials murdered by the peasants between July 1 and August 15 this year is well over 600.

The Summary has no change of policy to suggest. Anxiety as to future developments is present throughout it. It is clear that the Soviet Government regard this as the most difficult situation that they have yet had to face.

to see the convicts return from their work.

At one place a half-a-mile long screen, has been erected on the path to the quarry to hide the convicts from view, but still people crowd around in such numbers that the road is often obstructed. The police at Prince of Wales are assisting the warden in keeping the crowd on the move, but now people walk round and round the prison, looking at the walls and

MASSED ATTACK.

NATIONAL GENERAL LEADS HIS WHOLE ARMY.

DRIVE ON KUOMINCHUN.

Chengchow, Thursday.
Acting under instructions, General Yang Fu-cheng is leading his whole army to attack Shensi, handing over the Nan-yang defence to the control of General Liu Chih.

The Nationalists of the 44th and 48th divisions under General Hsu Yuan-chuan who are now assisting General Yang Fu-cheng in attacking Tungkuang Pass, will be recalled to Hankow for bandit suppression as soon as Tungkuang falls.

That more Nationalists are participating in the drive on the Kuominchun is witnessed by the advance of the troops under Generals Wang Chun and Kin Hanting, who, having passed Loshui, are now heading for Tungkuang.

Rehabilitation.

The rehabilitation problem of the North-Western provinces was brought up for discussion yesterday at a meeting presided over by Marshal Chiang Kai-shek and attended by many other prominent members, who decided to appoint General Li Ming-chung, a former Kuominchun General, being loyal to the Central Government after the outbreak of the Yen-Feng rebellion, as "Pacification Commissioner" of the North-Western provinces, and concurrently "Tupan" of the Hupei, Honan and Anhwei Border Defence, and also to appoint General Liu Chen-hwa to rehabilitate Shensi and Shansi. The above appointments will be proclaimed in a few days.

Pardon for Rebels.

General Lu Chung-lin, the Chief Lieutenant of Feng Yu-hsiang, has delegated Li Hsin, Jan Yu-cho, and Li Kwang-an, representing the entire body of the Kuominchun, to Nanking. The emissaries arrived at their destination on Tuesday and interviewed President Chiang the following morning, deploring their previous rash revolt and pledging their present loyalty to the Central Government. They continued that the Kuominchun were ready to be reorganised in accordance with the instructions of the Central Government and they hoped their past misdeeds would be pardoned. The President is said to have accepted their request.

Yen to Give Up Charhar.

Yen Hsi-shan is reported to have decided to give up Charhar Province, but desperately to guard Suiyuan so as to maintain the communications among the Shansi, Shensi and Kansu provinces. In view of the insufficient military strength on the part of the Shansi troops who are able to defend only Shansi, Yen Hsi-shan has planned to assign the Suiyuan Province to the Kuominchun, who, Yen hopes, may resist the pressure of the Mukden troops.

Rebels Fall Back.

Fighting by the advance of the 6th Manchurian Brigade under Yu Hsueh-chang from Wanchuan and Titchen on the Hopen-Charhar border northward, and the further arrival of two more Mukden brigades at Wanchuan, it is apparent that the North-Eastern troops have determined to take over the control of Charhar and Suiyuan provinces. The Shansi forces under the command of Tso Chi-chun, who are stationed in districts on the Hopen-Charhar border, have evacuated Suenfah and Yangkoo, and fallen back to Ta-tung on the Shansi-Charhar border.

Government Leaves.

Telegraph advices from Changchiao state that the members and staffs of the Charhar Provincial Government have withdrawn to Shansi in company with the Shansi troops. Before the complete evacuation of the Shansi provinces and the arrival of the Manchurian troops at Charhar, a "Peace Maintenance Corps" has been organised by the various city organs with the object of temporarily maintaining local peace and order.

New Commander.

Having concentrated his forces along Changteh, Waihu, as far as Hantan, Shih Yu-san announced yesterday his formal assumption of the Nationalist post of Commander-in-Chief of the 19th Route Army, declaring that he was going to force Yen Hsi-shan and Feng Yu-hsiang to retire, in compliance with the instructions of the Central Government.

A Peking message asserts that Marshal Chiang Kai-shek, and General Chiang Hanchiang, will shortly issue a joint telegram, advising Yen Hsi-shan and Feng Yu-hsiang to retire, and to leave their troops to the Central Government for reorganisation.

SIEGE OF NANNING.

KWANGSI INSURGENTS LOSE THEIR MORALE.

GUERRILLA TACTICS.

Canton, Saturday.
With the unsuccessful attempt in raising the siege of Nanning, the rebels have fallen back toward Liuchow, following the abandonment of Wu-ming, which is now in the hands of the Yunnanese.

After having suffered repeated reverses, the Kwangsi insurgents have lost their morale and are resorting to guerrilla tactics for the purpose of prolonging the war. However, some 2,000 rebels under the command of Cheng Tien-hap, stationed on the Kwangsi-Hunan border, who are reported to have surrendered to the 16th Hunan Division under General Lo Fan-ying, have been reorganised into the 47th Nationalist Brigade, with Cheng as its Brigadier-General.

Transport of Troops.

In order to effect an early conclusion of the Kwangsi war, General Chan Chai-tong has instructed the 1st Independent Brigade under Chang Sui-kwei, now in Shuihung, to depart for the upper West River. Several scores of junks have been held in readiness on the Shuihung river for the transport of these troops to Kweihsien and Kweiiping, thence to Nanning front. It is understood that this newly independent brigade was organised several months ago, with the 1st regiment stationed in Pingnam, Kwangsi, and the 2nd and 3rd regiments in Shuihung for receiving further training. The two latter regiments comprise about 4,000 strong. Interesting result is expected upon the arrival of these fresh troops at the Kwangsi front.

Apart from the above reinforcements, sent to round up the rebels, the 59th Division under Yu Hon-mou, is heading from Szelung for Nanning, and the 63rd division under Li Yang-kung from the West River for the same objective, thus indicating that a general offensive on Nanning will shortly resume.

Li Chai-sum Again.

In view of the chaotic state in Kwangsi, Marshal Li Chai-sum, who has been residing in Nanning, and is little heard of for some time, is now said to have addressed a wire to Li Chung-yen, Pei Hsueh-hsi, Wang Shao-hung, and Chang Fat-kuei at Liuchow, advising them to retire and to hand over their subordinates over to the Central Government for reorganisation, so as to give the Kwangsi people a breathing spell. According to military report, the two battalions of insurgents guarding Pinglo have sent delegates to see Commander Lui Ting-hsiang, expressing their willingness to surrender. Commander Lui has reported the matter to General Chan Chai-tong for consideration.

Fighting Raging in Tungkuang.

Fighting between the Nationalists under Yang Fu-chang and the Kuominchun under Sung Chih-yuan is reported to have taken place in the vicinity of Tungkuang Pass on the 21st. After a day's engagement, the Kuominchun were defeated, with a contingent retreating in the direction of Feng-ling-tao, Shansi. A Peking report claims that Yen Hsi-shan has decided at the Taiyuan Military Confab to hand over the military command to Feng Yu-hsiang who is to be responsible to guard desperately the three passes—Tungkuang, Liangtzekuan, and Yammoo-kuan; and that Yen himself is to administer the civil affairs. It is further current that the Shansiites will co-operate with the Kuominchun to garrison Shansi, Shensi, Kansu and Suiyuan, since 30,000 Shansiites and 5,000 Kuominchun have arrived at Tatum, on the Shansi-Charhar border.

A conflicting report from Taiyuan has it that Yen Hsi-shan and Feng Yu-hsiang have drafted a circular telegram, announcing their retirement, which will be released for publication within one or two days.

Yen Hsi-shan has instructed Tso Chi-chun to erect strong fortifications and trenches along Yammoo-kuan, and to evacuate Tatum, when necessary. Canton News Agency.

SIR P. CHETWODE.*MEMBER OF COUNCIL OF INDIA.

Bugby, Saturday.
His Majesty the King has approved the appointment of General Sir Philip Chetwode to be a Member of the Executive Council of the Government-General of India on assumption of the post of Commander-in-Chief of India—British Wireless Service.

BRAZIL GOES RED.

REVOLUTIONARIES COUP D'ETAT SUCCESSFUL.

FRENZIED SCENES.

Rio de Janeiro, Saturday.
The ex-President, Senhor Luis, is now incarcerated in a fort and all his ex-Ministers are detained in the Palace.

Senhor Luis obstinately refuses to sign his resignation.

The Provisional Junta of Rio de Janeiro, which is composed of two generals, an admiral and a doctor, has assumed dictatorial powers and will control the Government until negotiations can be opened with the representatives of the States which began the revolution.

The State of Sao Paulo has declared for the revolution. Following sporadic firing in the City, officials of Sao Paulo, hearing of the fall of Luis, have fled.

Good Temper Prevails.

The Governmental Junta has dissolved the Congress and Supreme Court. President Luis will be kept a prisoner at Guanabara Palace. The Minister of War and the Vice-President of the Senate have been arrested, but Dr. Prestes, Federal President-Elect, has fled by air.

The populace itself liberated all the political prisoners. Mobs are still surging in the streets, but cheerfulness and good temper are prevailing. At night a meeting of military chiefs settled the downfall of the Government.

General de Castro, Commander of the fortresses, ordered to report to the War Minister, who refused to go, visited the fortresses and obtained promises of support. Thereupon he communicated with the Navy. Final agreement was reached at two in the morning, and an ultimatum was drafted and conveyed to the ex-President by Cardinal Teme.

Vengeance on the Press.

Fires flared in several sections of the town as rioters wreaked their vengeance on newspapers supporting the deposed Government. The flames spurted half a dozen offices, and lack of water-pressure rendered the firemen helpless. Several blazes started on the waterfront, where are situated the American Consulate-General and the headquarters of the U.S. Commercial Attache and several other Consulates.

Red flags were displayed and the demonstrators were not hindered by the police or others. The inhabitants of Pernambuco went wild at the news of the Government's surrender. Bells at all churches pealed and the air was full of shouts of "Vivo Ejercito" (long live the Army).

Rioting grew worse in the afternoon, when crowds wrecked the building of the newspaper Jornal Del Brazil, one of the most important papers in the country. Skirmishes and firing proceeded in the streets for some time.

Carnival Spirit.

Washington, Saturday.
In view of the Government's decision last week to permit the export of arms and munitions to the Brazil Government, but not to the insurgents, the first despatches from the Ambassador at Rio de Janeiro are anxiously awaited.

The Ambassador describes the Military Junta as "five responsible officers of long service," and adds that the crowds are expressing their enthusiasm in carnival spirit, the Red Flags symbolising "revolution," but not Communism. — Reuter's American Service.

German Ship Shelled.

Berlin, Saturday.
The Hamburg-America Line's steamer Baden reports from Rio de Janeiro that it was hit by a shell from a fort and eighteen persons, mostly Spanish emigrants to Argentina, were killed and wounded. The Brazilian Minister of Justice states that the Baden sailed without showing her National flag and a warning shot was fired. Unfortunately it hit her. The Brazilian Government hopes to settle this very regrettable incident in a friendly manner.

New York, Yesterday.

A message from Rio de Janeiro states that further bloodshed in Brazil is possible owing to the rivalries of three outstanding figures of the revolution, namely, Getulio Vargas, Generalissimo of the southern rebel army, Dr. Osvaldo Aranha, Acting President of Rio Grande do Sul, and Captain Juarez Avelar, commanding the northern revolutionary army. — Reuter's American Service.

PRIEST ESCAPES OVER CITY WALL.

$400,000 RANSOM.

Hankow, Saturday.

A Catholic Father who escaped from Loshan, in South Honan, 10 minutes before the entry of bandits, reports that the Rev. K. N. Tvedt, and Miss Evenson, of the Lutheran United Mission, failed to escape and, it is presumed, were captured.

In Bandits' Hands.

Peking, Saturday.
The U.S. Consul in Hankow received a letter on October 24 from Loshan, signed by Father Tvedt and Miss Evenson, dated October 18, stating that they are in the hands of brigands belonging to the First Red Army, who are holding them "because of financial difficulties." The Reds demand $400,000 ransom.

The Rev. Tvedt says that he is a Norwegian subject, though in an American organisation. — Priest Escapes?

It is understood that two American Catholics are registered as being at Loshan—Thomas Megan and Joseph Henkels. No definite news of them has been received, but it is known that Megan was there on October 15.

One Catholic priest climbed over the city wall just as the bandits were entering the town. He is believed to be one of these two.

Missionary Freed.

Peking, Later.
The Italian Legation announces that it has received the information that Father Brugnetti, of the Italian Catholic Mission at Nanyangfu, in south-west Honan, has been liberated.

Father Brugnetti was captured by brigands sometime ago. The Legation made representations to the Chinese Government on the matter.

The Apostolic Delegate, Constantin, is leaving Peking tomorrow for Rome. — Reuter.

MINISTER'S SALARIES TO BE REDUCED.

Berlin, Saturday.

The Cabinet has agreed to reduce Ministerial salaries by 20 per cent, as from November 1, and has adopted the Budget for 1931. The reduction of salaries for State officials and Post officials is expected to yield over $5,000,000. — Reuter.

DISASTROUS FIRE.

THREE CHINESE SHIPYARDS INVOLVED.

$100,000 DAMAGE.

Three Chinese shipyards, Messrs. Kwong Fuk Cheung, Kwong Cheung Hing and Wing On Sing were destroyed by fire which broke out at Cheungshawan along the Lanchow Road, yesterday morning, and which raged for about three hours. Damage to the extent of $100,000 was done.

Originating, it is alleged, from a leakage of oil from a motor engine, the fire soon swept over an area of more than a hundred square yards. Three fire engines were early on the scene, and in spite of the efforts of the firemen, the conflagration got greater. The services of the No. 1 fireboat were called upon. It was found that an emergency water pump in one of the three yards involved was burned, and thus the firefighters could not use it.

In the midst of the tumult, three steam vessels, the ex-Government tender Stanley, the Man Sang, a launch belonging to the Yau-mat Ferry Co., and a new vessel under construction, were alongside a slipway.

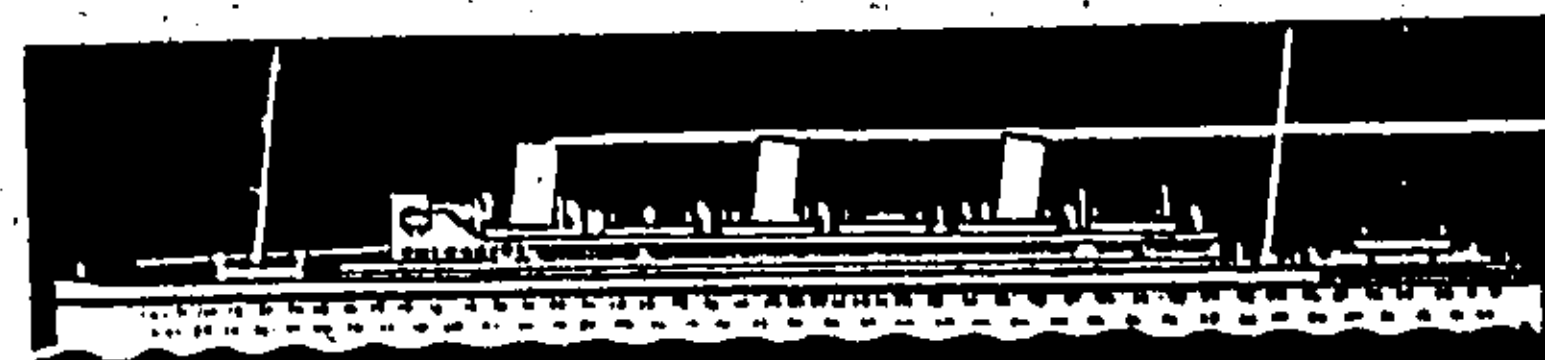

The flames gained a hold on the Stanley, but the firemen soon got the upper hand, and subdued them before any serious damage was done. Coping well with the difficult situation, the fireman set to work removing a large quantity of timber from one of the yards, whilst doing so, one of the firemen was hurt by a falling log. He was hit in the back and collapsed, and was removed to hospital.

A large quantity of electric cable of the Kwong Fuk Cheung yard was devoured by the flames. This yard has been insured to the extent of $30,000. The other yards were uninsured.

A number of matchboxes attached to the Wing On Sing shipyard were completely destroyed.

remarks of Mr. Henry Ford to the effect that orders for new

they could be built cheapest, and that European shipyards, espe-

better able to build ships than American yards by reason of their long experience, Mr. H. G.

to take second place to any nation in the world in shipbuilding. If given the orders, American shipyards can build ships as fine, if not finer, than the yards of any other nation. Those who are familiar with the history of American shipbuilding as far back as the clipper ship period,
know that skill has never been lacking in American yards, and that our yards are capable of building first class ships unsurpassed in design, workmanship
and materials.

Mr. Smith added that he was convinced that the new ships recently built or now being built in the U.S. are entitled to rank
with the finest ships of their size afloat under any flag. These include the turbo-electric Panama
Pacific liners California, Virginia and Pennsylvania, the American South African Line motorship
City of New York, the turboelectric liner Morro Castle, of the Ward Line, the turbo-electric liner Santa Clara, of the Grace Line, the Matson liner Malolo,
and several others under construction or approaching completion.

Skilled Personnel.
A splendid corps of naval architects, marine engineers and other shipbuilding experts has been built up by the American shipyards in recent years, he added,
so that they are now equipped to turn out work second to none.
As to the contention that ships
can be built cheaper abroad, Mr.
Smith pointed out that the higher cost of such work in the U.S. is one of the results of the protective tariff, which has brought about higher wages and better working conditions for labour.

Up to a few years ago, Mr.
Smith said, about 80 per cent. of the United States naval vessels were built in private yards. This,
he declared, was a testimonial to the efficiency of the latter. The aeroplane carriers Lexington and Saratoga, the finest of their type in the world, as well as several battleships and scout cruisers,
and other types of naval vessels,
had been turned out by private yards.

Even in the period from 1890
to the opening of the war, when only a few merchant ships were built in the U.S., he continued,
the vessels turned out by American yards had nothing to fear by comparison with the product of their foreign competitors. In this period, he pointed out, the merchant vessels built in the U.S.
included the St. Paul, St. Louis, Manchuria, Mongolia, Great Northern and Northern Pacific.

Meeting Competition.
American ingenuity, which has proved its ability to cope with conditions in so many other industries, can be applied to shipbuilding he added, without any fear of being outdone by foreign competition, and other things

being equal, American owners can operate ships just as efficiently as anyone else.

Referring to Mr. Ford's tribute to the skill of the German shipbuilders, which was made apropos the striking performances of the North German Lloyd liners Bremen and Europa, Mr.
Smith said: "The Bremen and Europa undoubtedly are excellent vessels, but they do not contain anything not already known to shipbuilding experts throughout the world."

HONG KONG TIDE

The tide-table given below has been obtained by aid of the Tide-predicting Machine, which includes 40 components for the better prediction of tides, from the result of the analysis of the tidal observations, taken at the Kowloon tidal observatory under the direction of Dr. Dobiesck during the years 1887, 1888 and 1889.
The times and heights are given for Kowloon, but they may be used for the Victoria Naval Yard and Aberdeen, the differences being very small.

The times of high and low-water must not be considered to coincide with the times of slack-water and change of current, the two phenomena
being quite distinct.

OBFUSCATION.

The mental obtuseness of the morning contemporary to which we referred in this column a few days ago is truly marvellous.
Not even in these days of general enlightenment can it realise the futility of the tu quoque argument. As for obfuscation, we would point out that shutting one's eyes to the obvious is an efficient means of producing that delightful state.

We fear that our contemporary has not understood aright the
"expert on placatorial affairs"
quoted by the Hon. Mr. Braga.
Those who would take delight in using their leisure in an intelligent way, to wit, finding out something about the funny inhabitants of the surrounding waters, are more than likely the very people who will find time to read "Karl Marx, Bernard Shaw, and other similarly disturbing
writers on social problems," leaving the uninterested to the tender mercies of those who bandy about the name of the first without ever having read a word that he wrote,
and of those who know no more
of our greatest dramatist since Shakespeare than what they read over their morning coffee.

Our contemporary is surely putting a premium on obfuscation
when it shuts its eyes to the social utility of supplying accommodation to enable hundreds of "fags" to spend part of their leisure watching twenty-two men fishing about after an inflated bladder. It gives them something to do, something to talk about, something to subsidize their leisure with.

other institutions of a similar educational and social significance
would supplement such facilities
as already exist. An aquarium would have the added advantage
to which the perversion of our contemporary makes it blind.
Besides being of educational and political value, it would be of economic value; it would be a
"paying proposition" and so satisfy the acid test placed on all undertakings in a business community.

Times of industrial depression breed pessimism and his twin brother, cynicism. To the alert, however, they give an opportunity for "stock-taking," and for scrapping obsolete machinery and replacing it at deflated prices
with more modern appliances.
Much of our local social machinery is obsolete and needs replacement; and for certain purposes we have none at all. It would show our confidence in the future of the Colony if the eyes of the community were opened to the things that really matter
instead of being obfuscated by having drawn over them the veil
of gratuitous and unbalanced cynicism.

pected. Service men are also reminded of the dance to be held in the City Hall on Monday, November 3,
for which tickets can now be obtained.

HOTEL WAGES.

MINISTRY INQUIRY INTO TRADE CONDITIONS.

As a result of an inquiry by the Ministry of Labour a trade board is to be set up to fix statutory minimum wages and hours, with overtime rates, for the catering
trade.

The report of the Ministry, issued recently as a Blue Book, estimates that less than 5 per cent. of the workers in all branches of the trade are members of "trades unions."

At the larger licensed hotels, states the report, 44 per cent. of the men received tips, ranging on the basis of the employers'
estimates, from a few shillings to £5 a week (or more in a few cases of head waiters and head porters);
and nearly one-third of the women
received tips, varying generally from between five shillings and ten shillings up to forty shillings
or more a week.

At licensed restaurants one-third of the men and two-fifths of the women were in receipt of tips,
the usual range of amounts being from about five shillings or ten shillings up to eighty shillings a week (or more in a few cases
among head waiters, etc.) for men,
and from between five shillings
and ten shillings up to about fifty shillings a week for women.

Returns received of 7,437 male adults employed in hotels with more than ten bedrooms showed that 26.6 per cent. were receiving total remuneration valued at £5 weekly or more. These were mainly head waiters, waiters, chefs, assistant cooks, head porters, clerks and cashiers. Of 5,422 women employed in such hotels 31.9 per cent. received 60s. a week or more.

ONE OF "BIG FIVE."

DEATH OF WELL-KNOWN SCOTLAND YARD OFFICIAL.

London, Sept. 28.
Superintendent Francis Carrlin,
one of the original members (the "Big Five") of Scotland Yard, has died, having enjoyed only three years' retirement after 40 years'
police service.

He was connected with many famous cases and had an unvalued
knowledge of the underworld.
He was mainly instrumental in stamping out a dope gang in the West End.

A button missing from a soldier's great-coat led him to the murderer of a girl in 1918.
Similarly, tiny beginnings brought murderers, forgers and thieves to book.

The movements of a rat once helped him to bring four men to the Old Bailey, two of whom were sentenced to 14 years' penal service.

He tried to dislodge the rat from behind a radiator, and there found a bag containing a sum of £8,000 which had been stolen from an hotel.

He replaced the bag and later
caught the thief taking the money from it.

HOLD-UP AT BARKING.

Bandit's Raid On Station Booking Office.

London, September 29.

A dangerous weapon in the form of a gas gun was described by a Police Inspector as being in the possession of three suspects, aged about 20, who were charged at Stratford to-day in connection with the hold-up at Barking Station.

At midnight on September 19,
three bandits entered the London
Midland and Scottish Railway Station, gagged and bound the two booking clerks who were checking
the day's takings, and escaped with a booty of £120, in a motor-car, which was found abandoned a mile away.

The accused's names are Albert
Earle and Lionel Earle (brothers) and Alfred Stevenson. They were arrested at Lowestoft.

It is alleged that they aimed loaded pistols at the booking clerks and were carrying a quantity of ammunition besides the gas gun.

They also had masks and gas
and were remanded in custody.

WARDEN PLUMB.

We learn that there is no material change to-day in the condition of Warden Plumb.

WILD ANIMALS IN CAPTIVITY.

Bad Tempered Deer and Gentle Cheetahs.

Philadelphia, Aug. 25.
Lions, tigers and other carnivorous species may be the terror of the jungle and "rule the roost" in their native habitat, but when they are placed in captivity they rapidly become easily handled guests.

They frequently develop a liking
for petting, and behave generally like well-bred dogs, taking a fancy
to their attendants and showing their love and admiration by means of good behaviour and fawning,
according to Mr. C. Emerson Brown, director of the Philadelphia Zoological Gardens.

"Surprising as it may seem," Mr.
Brown declares, "the deer—tham-mild and gentle creature of the woodland—is one of our real sources of trouble. Here at the Zoo we have learned, through bitter experi-

NOTED FINANCIER DEAD.

New York, Yesterday.

The death occurred to-day
of Mr. Harry Rayne Whitney, the banker, President of the Whitney Realty Co., and a director of the Guaranty Trust Co., in his fifty-eighth year. — Reuter's American Service.

ence, that the buck deer, with all his glorified head-dress, is not the fine, stately beast he appears to be, but a natural born "ornery critter" to be feared at all times. His temper is very bad and never is it safe to turn away from him.

"Dozens of times keepers have had really narrow escapes from a painful goring when one of these towering fellows has put his head down and charged.

"The doe isn't a very gentle specimen either, when she is once put into a wire-enclosed pasture.
While it is not her natural instinct to charge a man she will take any chance afforded her to bite at a keeper who isn't wary.

African Buffalo.
"The African buffalo is probably the next most perilous charge of the keepers here, although, in his natural state, he ranks among the first on the danger list.

"They are noted for their cunning and have been known to separate,
when pursued, and part of their herd to attack a hunting party from the rear. They have remarkable memories, similar to that of the elephant, and if ever one of these beasts gets a grudge he will await his chance to get even.

"Poisonous snakes may be adjudged in the same light. They will always strike and try to get away
rather than fight.

Birds Are Safe.
"As a matter of fact," Mr. Brown declared, "the only safe guests here are our birds. No matter how terrible the vulture, eagle or hawk, it will fly from a human being, and only on rare occasions will it turn and face an enemy. Any adult who will face or pursue one of these birds
can, nine times out of ten, render it helpless.

"But of all the animals, birds and snakes here the real pet is our cheetah, or hunting leopard. She is absolutely gentle and has never offered to be the least bit ugly to anyone. She has many friends, both among the staff here and among the visitors."

TAMAR DANCE.

IN HONOUR OF REAR-ADMIRAL HILL.

A successful and enjoyable dance was given on board the H.M.S. Tamar on Saturday night to mark the departure from Hong Kong of Rear-Admiral R. A. S.
Hill, C.B.E., Commodore.

Over 325 guests attended the gay function which was enlightened by the band of the Somerset Light Infantry, which assisted the proceedings with an attractive programme of dance music. The Master of Arms, Mr.
E. T. Boone and his committee are to be heartily congratulated on the excellent arrangements of the dance, which worked very smoothly indeed. The numbers that were present speak in very eloquent terms of the regard in which Rear-Admiral Hill is held,
not only by the ship's company, of the Tamar, but by all in the Colony whom he has met.

An American in London was discussing business with several friends over a row of drinks. He ordered the glasses to be replenished, but the waiter reminded him that it was past closing hours and the drinks could not be provided.
The American uttered an exclamation of annoyance.
"We don't have any of that stuff in the States," he said.
"Why don't you bring in prohibition?"

STATE MEDICAL SERVICE.

Dr. Graham Little's Warning.

PARTING OF THE WAYS.

The medical profession is now at the parting of the ways, declared
Dr. Graham Little, M.P. for London University, in an address to the Faddington Medical Society on September 9.

A State medical service scheme
"is actually in preparation under very influential auspices and may see the light in the autumn," he said, and decisions now to be taken were even more important than those of 1912, when the National Health Insurance scheme first came into operation.

"The issue is," he said, "nothing less than whether the profession
shall consent to the entire extirmination of private practice and all that it means, and substitute for it one of two alternatives—(1) a practically universal contract practice; (2) a universal State medical service.

"The difference between the alternatives is perhaps not so great as it might seem. I do not think any sensible person can doubt that if contract medical practice became universal the State would dominate it as completely as any
State medical service."

Dr. Graham Little added that the introduction of a State medical service scheme was not, of course, synonymous with saying that such a scheme would pass Parliament, and he did not think it would.

"A Veterinary Level."
Dr. W. J. O'Donovan, prospective
Conservative candidate for Mil-
End, in an address at the 1912 Club
End, said that for a slave community
a medical service must be organised,
but a free community would always evolve an efficient medical profession
suited to its own conditions.

"In a Socialist system a provided medical service would work on a veterinary level. Through its maternity service husbands would be dissolved from the burdens of fatherhood, and children delivered in State beds would be the children of the State—an immoral proposition."

WINGLESS PLANE.

BEING SECRETLY BUILT ON LONG ISLAND.

The secrets of a new mysterious aircraft, without wings and operated on the rotor idea, are being jealously guarded by three inventors who are developing the craft on a barge on Long Island Sound, says a New York message.

Messrs. Walter P. Chrysler and Harold Elstner Talbot Jr. are the capitalists said to be backing the venture. Nothing could be learned concerning the matter at their offices, however.

The machine is based on the plan
used in the celebrated Flettner rotor ship. It resembles a seaplane without wings. A single motor in the nose supplies the traction through a three-bladed propeller. An air-cooled auxiliary motor provides power to rotate the cylinders which take the place of wings.

Two rotors are in each side of the craft. An outrigger rudder is forward, behind is a small pair of tapered cockpits. Between the motor and the cockpits are two large booms used in place of the customary four longerons.

Approach to the barge on which the experiment is being made is closely watched. The three inventors and three assistants are the only persons permitted on board.

CHINESE TEXTILES.

FORMER CLERK'S GIFT TO NEW YORK MUSEUM.

A clerk, formerly employed by the Metropolitan Insurance Company,
New York, who lived alone in a small apartment in the Bronx, and died
some months ago at the age of 87,
has bequeathed to the Metropolitan Museum of Arts his entire estate, which consists of 1,065 examples of Chinese textiles.

The clerk, whose name was William Christian Paul, had spent all his spare money on assembling this unique collection. He began it on his return from a trip round the world which he took in 1908 for the sake of his health.

After that trip he scarcely ever left New York. As his knowledge became increasingly expert, and his passion for his collection more and more absorbing, dealers with peculiarly rare examples of silk, even began to offer them to him even before approaching wealthy and well-known collectors.

He seldom took advice, relying almost entirely on his own judgment. The collection includes work of the sixteenth, seventeenth, eighteenth, and nineteenth centuries. This treasure has kept in trunks, boxes, and cupboards in his apartment in the Bronx.

YOUR VISIT TO HONG KONG

HOW TO MAKE IT INTERESTING AND MEMORABLE.

A GUIDE FOR THE TOURIST.

You don't have to be a geographer to have heard of Hong Kong. Whether you come from a "tall grass region" of the United States or from a gigantic City that has no time to bother about other places, the name will be familiar to you. After all, it is one of the greatest ports in the world, possessing an ideal harbour, which makes it eminently suitable for the extensive entrepot trade with China. As for beauty of scenery, you have the essence of the Orient cheek by jowl with views that rival Japan, the South of France, the West Coast of England, and the Highlands of Scotland. Whether or not you are to enjoy your visit depends wholly upon the manner in which you go about your sight-seeing. Below we offer to the tourist a few hints, the fruits of experience, which, if taken, will enable him to see and enjoy the best that the Colony can offer in the least possible time.

We shall have to begin with a little history. In the first place, the two words Hong Kong mean "Fragrant Harbour"—it is not difficult to see why. Prior to 1841 there was no recognised name for the Island. The anchorage at Aberdeen (a picturesque fishing village on the side opposite the Harbour) was known to sailors as Heung Kong. The Chinese characters representing that name may be translated by "Fragrant Stream" or "Fragrant Harbour." Another possible rendering is "Heung's Harbour," the haunt of a notorious pirate named Heung.

Kowloon (the mainland opposite Hong Kong) is the anglicised form of the Chinese Kau Lung (nine dragons). This name is derived from the ridge of nine hills which form a rampart along the northern side of the harbour and seem to be guarding the approach to China. You may see them from your ship—quite plainly.

Hong Kong became a British Colony in 1841. In 1860 about two square miles of the mainland of Kowloon and Stonecutters Island were leased in perpetuity. The district called the "New Territory" was leased to Great Britain in 1898 for a period of ninety-nine years. It covers 376 square miles and includes the Island of Lan Tau and the waters of the farther shores of Deep Bay and Mirs Bay. So much for history.

The Old and the New.

Few people can realise how great has been the change in the Island since the British administration. A book entitled "China," published in 1847, contains a chapter with the following heading: "Hong Kong, its position, prospects, character, and utter worthlessness from every point of view to Britain." To-day one laughs at that prophecy. However, when it was written there seemed reasons for such a foreboding for the place had an unenviable reputation for rainstorms, typhoons, pirates, poisoners, malaria, and dysentery, and in Britain contempt for the new Colony was expressed in the popular song, "You may go to Hong Kong for me." Singular Beauty.

To-day this formerly despised possession is one of the world's busiest ports and the admiration, without exception, of every visitor to its shores. From the sea, and especially from the magnificent harbour, which faces the capital, the general aspect of Hong Kong is one of singular beauty. The hills are generously planted with Japanese firs, and the streams, which are plentiful, are traced through the uplands and glens by a line of straggling brushwood and herbage. The hills, which are mainly composed of granite, rise in irregular masses to considerable heights, the loftiest point, Victoria Peak, adjoining the residence of His Excellency the Governor (Sir William Peel, C.M.G.), reaching an altitude of 1825 feet.

There abound beautifully laid-out gardens, public and private, and solidly constructed roads, some of them bordered with bamboos and other delicately-fronded trees, and fringed with the luxuriant growth of semi-tropical vegetation. The temperature has a yearly range of from 45 to 99 degrees, but it occasionally falls below 40, and ice has been known to occur on the Peak.

The Shopping Centre.
Naturally you will be interested to hear about the City and the wonderful shops, both European and Chinese, which attract the tourist from all parts of the world. The central areas of the City are well built, the roads and streets are for the most part admirably made and kept up and many of the thoroughfares delightfully shaded with well-grown trees. The European business quarter occupies the middle of the City, from Pottinger Street to the Naval Yard, but with the exception of this limited area almost all the lower levels, especially the western district, are covered by a dense mass of Chinese shops and tenements. On the mainland new industrial and residential areas are rapidly springing up.

For the lover of the by-ways, and for those seeking the unusual purchase (who does not?), we would suggest a trip that can be both interesting and profitable. Few tourists, even many residents of the Colony, have heard of a district in Hong Kong called "Paddy's Market." The origin of the name is obscure—some enterprising Irishman was at the bottom of it, undoubtedly. This section of Hong Kong is said to resemble the remote shopping sections of old Peking, or possibly the "Thieves' Market" of Shanghai.

YOUR VISIT TO HONG KONG.

Ivory and Jade.
Surprisingly good things, such as old bits of porcelain and ivory, dragon gongs, bronze plaques, in base relief of ancient Chinese characters, antedating the Ming Dynasty. Oddly carved discs and pendants in Carnelian and jade, rare snuff bottles, lovely enamelled ware, and many more exquisite objects d'art are to be found in this quarter, which may be found in Tung Street, just off Queen's Road West. A rikisha will take you there for twenty cents.

Hours can be spent sauntering about in the curio shops in the middle of the City. Most of the curio dealers speak a little English. Rare and valuable objects can be secured if patience is exercised and one is not pressed for time. The average tourist on first coming to China is so thrilled with the beautiful and unusual goods offered that discretion flies to the winds; boxes and luggage are filled with a hodge-podge assortment of "things Chinese." The temptation to buy and buy is irresistible, and on returning home one is often filled with dismay at money squandered on the valueless and ordinary. Whereas, a few hours spent in study, while contemplating the trip, and by familiarising oneself, if only to a small extent, with the treasures and crafts that each particular dynasty produced, would repay the tourist tenfold. Most of the firms whose advertisements will be found in this Supplement will be only too glad to give expert advice on the curios they exhibit for sale. It must be remembered, however, that a really good example of jade, amber, or porcelain is assessed at its full value and cannot always be picked up for a "song."

Three Tours.

Great credit is due to the Government of Hong Kong in providing splendid motor roads, which make motoring a pleasure. Below we append three trips around the island, all of which are easily accessible and have been drawn up so as to give the visitor a fair indication of the beauties of the Colony.

Tour 1.

The party should start at about 11.45 a.m. by motor car from the centre of the town and proceed past the Lower Tram Station to Government House, the Dairy Farm, and Upper Road to Repulse Bay. Tiffin at Repulse Bay Hotel, about noon.

Leaving Repulse Bay at 2 p.m. and proceeding round the Island via Quarry Bay and Happy Valley arriving back in town about 2.45 p.m. Distance covered about thirty miles.

Tour 2.

Commencing from centre of town, via Lower Peak Tram Station and as above to Repulse Bay, thence the Peak Hotel via Stubbs-road. Finishing with auto at the Peak Hotel.

From the Peak Hotel the ascent by chair to the Flag Staff should not be missed. Descent to the City may be made by the Peak Tramway. Chair and Tram fares are not included in the above fares.

Tour 3.

Distance sixty miles; Time 3½ hours. Commencing at Kowloon Ferry via Castle Peak, Fanling Golf Course, Taipei and Shatin, finishing at Kowloon Ferry.

Round the Island

What has been well described as one of the most magnificent drives in the world is that by motor car round the Island. The route followed is from Queen's Road Central, thence into Garden-road, past Government House and the Botanic Gardens, along Caine-road, Bonham-road, past the University of Hong Kong, along Pokfulam-road, Aberdeen-road, and Repulse Bay, where a stop can be had for refreshments or the more enjoyable tiffin. Leaving Repulse Bay Hotel the journey is proceeded with to Stanley Bay, Tyntamuk Reservoir, and Sai Wan Gap and thence to Shaikwan. Within a short time Taikeo Dock is reached, and from there it is a very short drive, back to the original point of departure.

The entire drive covers a distance of 26 miles, but the scenery en route cannot adequately be described in mere prose. It has to be seen to be appreciated as it deserves. Next to the ascent and descent of the Peak it is a trip that no tourist should omit from his programme of sight-seeing.

Other Places of Interest.
Apart from motor launches that take the visitor to Stonecutters' Island and numerous inlets,

Golf Suits.
Four-piece suits of Harris tweed, equally appropriate on the fairway or in the office.

Mohair Suits.

abounding in most beautiful scenery, there is much to entertain, amuse and instruct without resort to vehicles. The Chinese curio shops and Indian stores cannot well be passed over by those in search of novelty or for a souvenir of their visit to this enchanted Isle. There is "China Town," teeming with thousands of Chinese living in narrow streets where one can almost stretch hands across the "thoroughfare," and where glimpses may be had of typical Chinese life in all its varied phases.

A good combination is a bus or motor car drive to Aberdeen (already referred to) and a tour through the Chinese fishing village. If time permits there is also a quaint little hamlet, Appichau, which can be reached in a few minutes by sampan. The return journey from Aberdeen can be made by launch, in which case the scenery, fringing the harbour approaches will be found very refreshing after the spell through the Chinese quarters of Aberdeen and Appichau.

For the individual who cares not for the joys of motoring a casual walk through the heart of the city will reveal much of interest in the way of public buildings and statues, including—although some way out—the University of Hong Kong. There are taxicabs and jinrikishas, not to mention sedan chairs, but in the case of the two latter the legal fare should always be ascertained beforehand as otherwise the "stranger within the gates" may find himself the victim of profiteering.

Chair and Jinrikisha Fares.
For chairs the tariff is—two bearers—15 cents for the first ten minutes; 20 cents for a quarter of an hour; 30 cents for half an hour; and 25 cents for every subsequent hour. For four bearers the fares are exactly double, with the exception that every subsequent hour after the first is charged 40 cents.

Jinrikisha charges are: 10 cents for 10 minutes; 20 cents for a quarter of an hour; 30 cents for half an hour; and 40 cents for an hour.

Kowloon and New Territories.
A reference to Kowloon has already been made in the third of the suggested tours—namely, to Castle Peak, Fanling, Taipei and Shatin.

A good afternoon's outing can be spent at Kowloon City, omnibuses to which run from the Star Ferry at Kowloon Point (10 cents fare from Hong Kong to Kowloon). En route a glimpse is afforded of the whole of the Kowloon Bay, with Lyseum Pass in the distance.

Eventually the granite wall of the old city of Kowloon will be reached, containing the old-time residence of the official representative of the Emperor of China.

There is also a School for the Blind, where faint articles may be purchased.

Returning by a bus marked "Yaumatei" the tourist can alight in Jordan-road and spend an enjoyable time in King's Park, where are laid out football, tennis, and bowls grounds for various Clubs and institutions.

time, and will take pleasure in showing visitors over the store, without obligation to buy. Prices will be found reasonable, and will compare with those of any other stores of this nature in the Colony.

SWATOW TRADING COMPANY.

The Swatow Trading Company, in Pedder Street, is well worth a visit.

They specialise in Swatow Drawnwork which is most appealing and very moderately priced. Their laces and art embroideries are also of the very highest in quality and styles, whilst in the matter of silk shawls the Swatow Trading Company have some exquisite beauties in stock which are real eye-openers for the tourists of the Malolo. The stitching of the embroideries is of dainty colouring and chic designs.

THE CHINESE BAZAAR.

The Chinese Bazaar (Tai Cheong Co.) in China Building, Queen's Road Central, are manufacturers and exporters, both wholesale and retail, of Swatow Drawnwork, Canton silk embroidery, and flat lace, all hand-made under expert supervision.

JEWELS AND CURIOS.

CHUI YUEN.

The difference between feasting one's eyes upon the Crown Jewels in the Tower of London and upon those jewels in 39A, Queen's Road Central, is that in the case of the former one pays for the privilege, and in the case of the latter one is cordially invited to do so. At this store one can have a glimpse of all the jewels of the East laid out in the most impressive manner. When visiting Hong Kong, no one should fail to examine the display of jewellery consisting of jade, pearls, agates, crystal, amethysts, lapis lazulis, turquoises, coral, old ivory, cornelian, cloisonne, amber beads, and all manner of stores.

The repair of all jewellery, at a moderate cost, is undertaken; and work will be completed even at six hours' notice.

HANG ON.

Visiting business men interested in export and import of ivory work in every shape and form should get in touch with the Hang On Ivory Store, situated at 39A, Queen's Road, Central.

This firm makes all kinds of carved ivory necklaces, bracelets, combs, brooches, cigar and cigarette holders, figures, pendants, balls, chessmen, etc. They are exporters, wholesale and retail, of such articles, and have a reputation second to none in the Colony.

Prices are most reasonable, and quality of the very best.

KOMOR'S.

(Komor &amp; Komor.)

A visit to Komor & Komor's Art gallery is recommended to all visitors to Hong Kong. The establishment is under the management of Mr. Komor, an authority on Chinese and Japanese art who joined the firm (Kuhn & Komor) forty years ago and whose collection is a household word under curio collectors.

The collection on exhibition is the finest in the Far East, and we need hardly add, shall so strengthen your collection or to the beginner, make so proud his humble lot, that in both cases he shall be the envy of his friends in U.S.A. and at home. You find articles there for prices ranging from one dollar up to thousands of dollars. Every article is marked in plain figures and visitors are always received with courtesy whether they buy or not. Komor's packing and shipping department guarantees that everything sent by them must arrive at any part of the world in perfect order.

Komor's art gallery is situated near the Hong Kong ferry corner of Chater Road and the fine window display draws all day and night big crowds of sight-seers. This firm, established since 1867, is one of the oldest in Hong Kong.

A jade screen in fine carving, supposed to be of the Ming dynasty, in very fine wood and gold mounting, will be the envy of many visitors who collect works of art. The wonderful silk lacquered Foochow screen will surely be admired by all visitors, and the unique collection of cloisonne and ivory work is worth the visit to this well known establishment.

KWONG WOO.

This shop is described as a wholesale Silk Store, but one has only to enter the store to satisfy oneself that there are other attractive objects for sale. Kwong Woo is a dealer in Chinese curios and all kinds of silks, crepe shawls, embroidered linen, blouses and table cloths. These silks are sold at a very reasonable price and a purchase would bring great pleasure to the recipients of such gifts. All the latest Eastern patterns in pure silk can be bought here.

The store has been in existence since 1841 and can boast of a very good reputation. There is also a very good selection of jewellery and gold and silver ware. The jade is of a very high quality, and guaranteed to be genuine. The selection of ivory displayed should prove interesting to the visitor. In fact, the whole store is a miniature treasure island.

LOCK HING.

Specialists in dealing with curios since 1870, Lock Hing is another of Hong Kong's long established and reliable Chinese firms. The shop is at No. 83, Queen's Road Central. Some of the pieces to be found in this shop cannot be duplicated. Everything is absolutely genuine, and best of all the prices are competitive.

Lock Hing's also deal in fine Shanghai and Canton silks, grass cloths, embroideries, crepes, chic shawls, and ivory, bronze, lacquered, cloisonne ware, porcelain and ornaments of gold and silver, and the work of master craftsmen. Gold and silver jewellery can also be made to order.

They are also manufacturers of Blackwood furniture both inlaid and carved chairs, tables and stand, all well made and beautifully finished.

LOONG SHING.

If it is jade that you are after go the Loong Shing. This shop is located at No. 48, Queen's Road Central and has a collection of genuine Jade jewellery which is hard to beat. The word genuine is always emphasised where Loong Shing is concerned, and the stress is very necessary because of the inevitable presence of imitation jade on the market, and one cannot be too careful when buying jade from a shop. Colours of false stones are so attractive that not only foreigners but Chinese people are "taken in" (so to speak) by the fakes. It is therefore wise for tourists to deal with shops that are only reliable. With Loong Shing there is no doubt as to that. This shop came into existence in 1864 and during a period, which extends over 60 years, Loong Shing has gained a great reputation for reliability and fairness in dealing.

THE CHINA JADE CO.

Nowhere in the Far East can beautiful jade be bought in bigger variety, and at more moderate prices, than in Hong Kong.

The China Jade Company, whose shop is in the China Building, Queen's Road, Central, have a reputation second to none for necklaces of pure jade, in all manner of styles. A big stock of pendants, rings, pins, bangles and bracelets are also carried, besides cuff links and novelties. One need have no hesitation in making purchases at this store, the name of the China Jade Company being itself a sufficient guarantee for the genuineness of the goods.

TUNG SHING.

Tung Shing, otherwise known as the Canton Bazaar, is well-known to regular visitors for beautiful jade work and jewellery.

The store is situated at No. 37, Queen's Road, Central, and has a special stock of silver and ivory ware, besides being expert in gold and silver smith's work. Silk shawls, embroideries, etc. are also stocked in big variety by this attractive store.

WANG HING.

For gold and silver ware of Chinese design and workmanship, visit Wang Hing's shop. This long-standing firm of jewellers have premises at No. 10, Queen's Road Central, very near to the Hong Kong Hotel. They have a reputation amongst foreign residents for fair dealing. The jade stone obtainable here are among the best to be found in Hong Kong, absolutely flawless and of delicate hues.

Everything here, from the smallest trinket to intricate silver junks, etc., are all the product of experienced Chinese craftsmen.

Wang Hing's prices are competitive whilst the goods are above average quality.

WAI KEE.

This reliable firm of expert dealer and valuers of jade, antiquities, precious stones, Chinese and Oriental works of art, jewellery, etc., is situated in the ground floor of the Hong Kong Hotel Building, at the corner of Queen's Road and Pedder Street. Mr. Wai Kee, the founder of the firm which was started some 40 years ago, is still actively connected with the business and delights to show visitors round his well stocked shop, and he talks very interestingly on every phase of his business. He also has a very good memory for faces and nothing pleases him better than to welcome globe-trotters who re-visit his shop after long intervals.

WAH KEE.

A Hong Kong store of high repute is that of Wah Kee, at No. 38, Queen's Road, Central, opposite the Queen's Theatre, dealers in jewellery and ivory. A specialty of the store is work in jade, and ladies desiring necklaces, pendants or bracelets should make a point of paying a visit here.

Gentlemen may obtain cuff links and tie pins at prices far below those obtaining in the Occident, the genuine stone being made up in most attractive designs.

There are to be found numbers of exquisitely carved ivory balls, another specialty. One inside the other, some have as many as thirty or forty inside one another. These novelties are well worth buying as mementoes of the East. Ivory carved chess sets can also be purchased at an extraordinarily low cost.

HONG KONG.

The well-known Art and Curio Experts, Messrs. Komor and Komor, decorated Mr. Fahnestock's Yacht Shenandoah III, after designs planned by Mrs. Fahnestock in Chinese style and this may safely be said, is the most unique decoration ever put on a yacht. The art rooms of Messrs. Komor and Komor are a sight of Hong Kong but if you can get a permit to see the private home of Mr. Komor on Prince Edward Road you will find a style of decorations in the Hall, Drawing and Dining rooms which you will enjoy and never forget. The colour scenic and the wonderful combination of carvings on the wall and furniture is a scheme of decoration which has never been attempted before and would surprise the great Reinhard even if he would see the bold designs.

BOILED ALIVE.

REVOLTING CRUELTY TO A LIVE PIGEON.

$50 FINE FOR PERJURY.

A case of "extreme cruelty, in which three pigeons were thrust into a pot of boiling water whilst alive, was mentioned before Mr. H. R. Butters at the Kowloon Court to-day, when the foki of a stall at Kun Chung Market, was charged. He was convicted, after evidence had been taken, and fined $50. Mr. F. C. E. Rendall appeared for the defence.

Acting Sub-Inspector Russell, said that when the pigeons were brought to the Police Station two were dead and one was alive. This he killed by breaking its neck. The master of the foki's stall, in his evidence for the defence, maintained that he went into the Station to see what really happened. He saw the Sergeant cut the live pigeon's throat with a knife. Mr. Butters felt the master $50 for perjury.

HELP FOR MUI-TSAI.

WORK DONE DURING THE YEAR.

At a meeting of the Anti-Mui T sai Society held at the Chinese Y.M.C.A. on Saturday, Mr. J. D. Bush, the English Secretary, outlined the progress made during the past year. He looked forward to the time when there would be absolute co-ordination between the S.C.A. and the Child Welfare Society.

Many of the cases that came before them were complex and needed very careful handling, and the Society was anxious to find a proper modus operandi to deal with cases concerning the elusive "adopted daughter," and also the anonymous communication of cases of ill-treatment of mui-tsai.

Registration was now an accomplished fact, and 4,299 mui-tsai were entered. The Courts of the Colony were active in enforcement of the law. There still remained much to accomplish, however.

"And how is your husband getting on with his reducing exercises, Mrs. Nuequids?"

"You'd be surprised—that battleship 'e 'ad tattooed on 'is chest is now only a rowing boat."

Features of the game were the eight runs scored by the Japanese in the second inning; and a beautiful homer by Ed Chang. At the conclusion of play, Mr. J. S. Shak, the hon. secretary of the Hong Kong Baseball Association thanked Mr. and Mrs. Creasy for their presence there that afternoon.

Before asking Mrs. Creasy to give away the trophy, he mentioned that the season was "opened" by Mr. Creasy and was, that afternoon, being "closed" by Mrs. Creasy.

After the shield had been handed over to the captain of the Japanese team, Mr. Creasy thanked Mr. Shak for so kindly asking his wife to give away the trophy.

Take the "rabbit" out of the game and what would happen? Clubs would close their doors; golf courses could not support themselves; golf club makers would go into bankruptcy; sports dealers would have to reduce their stocks; and makers of the delectable fluids dispensed at the nineteenth would quickly feel the draught. Yes, the long handicap man is the man who actually counts, although one would not think it—H. J. Chapman.

CRICKET.

INDIAN RECREATION CLUB
SECOND VICTORY.

CRAIGENGOWER WIN.

The Indian R.C. 2nd XI, followed up their success of a week ago, by again winning in a League match on Saturday, this time at the expense of the Club de Recreio. The latter are regarded as a very strong combination and the I.R.C. victory will, therefore, make them serious contenders for the championship, although it is yet too soon to make any forecasts.

The Craigengower C.C. 2nd XI, with a vastly improved side, easily defeated the Royal Army Service Corps in their initial game.

Of the friendly fixtures, the Hong Kong C.C.-Army match provided a rather peculiar finish, as it was not known that the game was drawn until a check was made on the score-book.

The wickets, generally speaking, played easily, but several noteworthy bowling feats were recorded, the most remarkable being R. Sourbutts's nine wickets for 25 runs against the R.A.S.C.

CHINA TOWN RIOT.

PROMINENT NATIONALISTS STABBED.

OUTRAGE IN MANILA.

Manila, Saturday.
The Chinese Communists last night attacked, mobbed, and stabbed prominent members of the Chinese Nationalist organisation in Manila.
Six were wounded and taken to hospital. Two of them were in a critical condition.
The victims include Mr. Gan Ru-hong, the proprietor of the largest Chinese cigarette factory here as well as a school principal, Mr. Ong Chuan-seng. Both are leaders of the Kuomintang.
The first outbreak was believed to be a long war, but later the victims asserted that the motives for the attack were purely political, being followed by repeated threats.
Police patrols and heavy constabulary may assist in subduing the trouble since Chinatown is in an uproar.—Reuter.

ROYAL WEDDING.

KING BORIS MARRIED TO PRINCESS GIOVANNA.

CEREMONY AT ASSISI.

Assisi, Italy, Saturday.
The thoughts of the whole of Bulgaria and Italy are centred on this normally quiet Perugian town, which to-day is ablaze with bunting and crowded on the occasion of the wedding of King Boris and Princess Giovanna of Italy. The ceremony in the church of St. Francis was attended by a distinguished gathering, including the Italian King Emmanuel, the ex-King Ferdinand of Bulgaria, and Signor Mussolini.—Reuter.

A PACK OF LIES?

SOVIET DENIES ARREST OF YOUNG JOWETT.

JOURNALISTIC FICTION?

London, Saturday.
In connection with Press reports of the alleged arrest of the young Briton, Master Christopher Jowett, on the trans-Siberian Railway, en route to Peking, the Soviet Embassy in London states that these are absolutely unfounded.
"Mr. Jowett was never arrested. He lost his passport and was unable to cross the frontier, and had to wait at Chita until the identification documents sent him by the British Consulate authorities in Manchuria reached him there, when he was able to continue his journey."—Reuter.

HOME POLITICS.

STORMY SESSION OF COMMONS AHEAD.

TORY DISRUPTION.

London, Saturday.
Parliament re-assembles on Tuesday in an atmosphere of political uncertainty.
The tariff controversy threatens rather the disruption of the Conservatives than embarrassment of the Government, but the latter is credited with the intention of submitting an advanced programme, including the repeal of the Trade Disputes Act and electoral reform, which promises a stormy session and is certain to meet with determined opposition on the part of the House of Lords. Then its declaration of policy as regards Palestine has now provided a political sensation of the first magnitude, with Mr. Lloyd George and General Smuts backing up the protest of Mr. Baldwin, Mr. Austen Chamberlain, and Mr. Amery.
Though there has been a little Labourite criticism, undoubtedly a considerable section of the Labour Party are sympathetic to the Zionists—hence the talk of the possibility of an early election has been revived, but how this can be brought about is another matter, since the Government can be defeated in the House of Commons only by a Conservative-Liberal combination, and there is no sign at present of a desire of the Liberals to eject the Government.

Furthermore, with the Round Table Conference sitting, and unemployment steadily growing blacker, neither of the Opposition Parties is anxious to appeal to the country; therefore, it is expected that the Opposition will harass the Government by question and answer with a view to extorting concessions, but they are not likely to combine in an amendment to the Address in reply to the Speech from the Throne, which might mean the defeat of the Government and its resignation or the dissolution of Parliament.—Reuter.

RIOTS IN JAPAN.

POLICE AND STRIKERS CLASH IN TOKYO.

SHOWERS OF STONES.

Tokyo, Saturday.
Riotous scenes were witnessed late last night in Kameido, a suburb of Tokyo, during a clash between the police and factory workers of the Toyo Muslin Co., who have been on strike for the past five weeks.

While the Police were attempting to suppress groups of strikers who were parading the streets, singing Labour songs, other strikers in the upper storeys of neighbouring buildings, started throwing stones on the police below. The ensuing fight necessitated the temporary suspension of traffic, as the strikers started stoning passing trams, six of which were damaged.

The disturbance was finally quelled after the arrest of 150 strikers. About a dozen police and 30 strikers were injured in the melee.

INDIA'S FUTURE.

MOST IMPORTANT EVENT IN WORLD.

POLITICAL PROGRESS.

London, Saturday.
The meeting of the leading Indian Princes in London this morning marks the preliminary stage of the Indian Round Table Conference, representing all shades of political thought in Britain and India opening on November 12 which the Postmaster-General, Mr. Lees Smith, in a speech last night, described as the most important event in the world seeking to "press into a few years" political progress which many other countries have taken centuries, and while we are doing it to retain in the Indian sub-continent unity which Europe herself is still very far from having achieved.

The total delegation of 89 is larger than the total of the Naval Conference, and is expected to break up into sectional Sub-Committees like the Imperial Conference, though in deference to the democratic spirit of the gathering, the Government has refrained from embarking on anything in the nature of a cut and dried programme.—Reuter.
